Sign up to speak or submit a written comment. NOTE: Speaker registration closes 15 minutes before the start of the meeting. Members of the public are given up to three minutes to speak, and groups are given up to nine minutes.

Guillermo Vazquez, Texas field representative for the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees (AFSCME), Aiden Robinson, Kelly Ann Gonzalez, Jorge Torres, James Hamilton, Araceli Herrera, Adrian Reyna, Anthony Cruz, Chris Reyes, and Quinn Graig spoke in support of removing the prohibition on the participation of city employees in municipal elections from the City Charter.

Anthony Cruz spoke in support of all the City Charter amendments recommended by the Charter Review Commission.

Katie Ferrier, representing the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, spoke in support of removing City Charter limits on City Manager compensation and tenure.

Gabriela Smith spoke in opposition to the City's support of LGBTQ.

Mariel Amador recommended that the City denounce its Sister City relationship with Tel Aviv, Israel and spoke in support of a cease-fire in Gaza.

Kristin Nickell, John Bachman, Laura Linam, and Eliza Guerra spoke in support of moving Animal Care Services (ACS) to a no-kill shelter status and encouraged the City Council to hire a new ACS Director to work toward that goal.

Joshua Hinson complained that his sidewalk chalk art keeps getting washed away by Centro San Antonio and he even got arrested.

Bill Bartholomew provided a written statement that was distributed to the City Council. His statement requested an update to the City Code to require 30-year shingles on homes.
