Briefing and discussion on the Housing Commission's Fiscal Years 2024-2025 Priorities

SUMMARY:

Briefing and discussion on the Housing Commission's Fiscal Years 2024-2025 Priorities

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

On October 11, 2023, the Housing Commission had a retreat to discuss their priorities for Fiscal Years 2024-2025. The Commissioners workshopped priorities and associated strategies during the retreat, regular October Housing Commission meeting, and group work sessions. During the November 29, 2023, Housing Commission meeting, Commissioners adopted five priorities:

- Recommend principles for increasing density to connect housing and transportation
- Support advocacy, coalition, and public messaging for financing to support projects, legislative message, and public/private partnerships
- Engage with Rental Owners & Operators

- Support a Public Information Campaign (PIC) to reframe affordable housing
- Support the advancement of homeless prevention & housing stability initiatives

ISSUE:

Housing Commission members will review and discuss the progress on strategies thus far. Commissioners will discuss the work subcommittees and the Commission as a whole have done to support the work.
