David Littlefield spoke of his concerns associated with parolees released in Bexar County and the need for housing for those individuals.

Bianca Maldonado spoke on the issue of pending contracts to be approved by City Council related to short term rentals and accessory dwelling units (ADUs). She spoke of her concerns related to further needed ordinances to address Hotel Occupancy Tax for these type of rentals and other regulations to address code issues. She stressed that a further compliance piece was needed for these types of rental properties so to address surrounding resident concerns.

Rose Hill, President of the Government Hill Neighborhood Association, spoke of her concerns associated with numerous neighborhood associations overlapping representation of residents in Council District 2 areas to address economic and housing development issues.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further discussion, the meeting was adjourned at 5:41 PM.
