| Appointees to the Youth Commission must be at least at the freshman grade level at the time of appointment. Appointment is for a maximum of a two year period at the sophomore or junior grade level. Senior grade level appointees serve for one year. Commission meetings are held at least once a month at City Hall or at various high schools throughout the city, at specific times and dates. Sometimes, because of special projects or other scheduled activities, meetings may be increased to more than once a month. Attendance at these meetings is mandatory. Limited excused absences can lead to removal from office. Upon appointment, commissioners are required to submit a signed parental consent form to the Department of Community Initiatives. |  |

| List those goals you most want to accomplish immediately after graduating High School or within the next four years.  | Continue to get all A's in my classes, run for leadership positions in school clubs, go to an out-of-state college and figure out what I want to do with my life.   |
| Given the opportunity to influence a significant change in San Antonio, what youth-related issue would you address?   | Teen engagement, meaning to create more events to connect teens across all of San Antonio. More events empowering teens in ethnic and racial minorities, girls, and the teenage queer community.  |
| What approach would you take? Who would you work with? Why this particular issue?   | I would ask for input from other teens for ideas, and I would work with city officials to make the events happen. I would want to work with diverse teenagers from all backgrounds. I want to put more emphasis on women and the queer community in San Antonio, and host events to let queer teens know that the city supports and accepts them. Getting diverse teens to interact boosts the overall community in San Antonio. The city will become more interconnected, and the relationships made from these events will impact the future population of San Antonio. |
