He previously ran for city council in San Antonio's District 5 region, where he lives and is a homeowner. Jeremy, as he is known to friends and family, wants to continue to serve San Antonio and the neighbors of District 5 through an appointed seat on open Boards and commissions. He is the son of a single mother and is not currently married.

Please provide a brief narrative outlining your reasons for seeking appointment to this board or commission:	As a community member in District 5, and a former employee of nonprofits and for-profit organizations, I know that I can bring a fresh perspective and a vast array of knowledge and insight to any board or commission appointed to. I previously applied for boards and commissions under the past councilmember and those applications were overlooked and I was not considered for any seats during the tenure. Many of the boards I have applied for have a deep connection to the history of San Antonio and the historic structures and political decisions that have been made in the past. Bringing forward the coursework, and experiences gained throughout my graduate work, run for council, and previous work history to address concerns as shared by Councilwoman Castillo, and the community, I feel I would be able to approach conversations and agenda items with an open mind and with historical context as backing.
