I don't know if I am submitting correctly - I am not able to make the citizens to be heard - I need to know if the City of San Antonio will open up the convention centers again to let the homeless people and recently cut off residents from CPS a place to go at night because BABY it's so cold outside. I know its not snowing - but, please it is so cold outside the people need a place to go at night and please don't say Haven for Hope - they need the convention center. Thank you -
