The Housing Commission will hold a workshop on August 8, 2022. The public is invited to attend this meeting in-person. Members of the public who wish to make comment can provide written comment in the following ways:

1. Submit written comments 24 hours before the meeting. Written comments can be submitted multiple ways:

- By email to housingpolicy@sanantonio.gov
- On our webpage at www.sanantonio.gov/NHSD/Coordinated-Housing/Housing-Commission
- By mail or dropped off at the Neighborhood & Housing Services Department, 100 W. Houston.

2. Submit written comments during the meeting using a comment card.

Public comment may be provided in English, Spanish, or another language.

Written comments will be put into the record, but will not be read or discussed at this meeting.

When providing public comment, please note the members of the public may provide comment on any agenda item, consistent with procedural rules governing the Housing Commission Workshop meetings and state law. This means comments must be made in relation to a specific agenda item.

Briefing and Possible Action on the following items

1. Workshop and discussion for Housing Commissioners to explore details related to the 2022-2027 Housing Bond solicitation process, to include an update on the Request for Proposal (RFP) scoring criteria, timeline, scoring committees; Displacement Impact Assessment (DIA) Pilot for new construction, bond-funded development proposals; and public information campaigns.
[Veronica Garcia, Interim Director, Neighborhood & Housing Services Department]

At any time during the meeting, the Housing Commission Workshop may meet in executive session for consultation with the City Attorney's Office concerning attorney client matters under Chapter 551 of the Texas Government Code.
