SUMMARY:

The Department of Arts and Culture hosted an opening reception for 2 new exhibitions at Centro de Artes, Millennial Lotería: The LatinXperience & Permanencia Voluntaria, on Thursday, February 8, 2024 from 6pm – 9pm. The first floor features California artists Michael Alfaro and Gerardo Guillén's Millennial Lotería: The LatinXperience and over 270 reimagined Loteria cards will be on display. This show aims to provide a snapshot of modern Latinx life, while also exploring and breaking stereotypes from Hispanic-American history, like colorism, classism, and homophobia. The second floor showcases over 40 paintings, prints, and site specific digital collage installations by artist Efedefroy (Froy Padilla Aragón) from Oaxaca, Mexico. His work combines pop culture icons of the eighties with figures from the Golden Age of Mexican Cinema, creating postmodernist pop art in urban spaces.
