Mayor Protem Courage recognized Councilmember Bravo to speak. Councilmember Bravo noted the conditions that two small speakers limited to 50 watts each would limit the amount of sound coming from the venue.

Councilmember Viagran suggested that the noise ordinance limit of 64 decibels of sound might need to be reconsidered if it is too loud but that the conditions met the legal requirements so she would support.

Mayor Protem Courage asked why staff recommended denial. Michael Shannon, Director of Development Service explained that the process began with no conditions, therefore staff recommended denial, however, the conditions that had been added met staff concerns.
