Given the opportunity to influence a significant change in San	The youth related issue I would

Antonio, what youth-related issue would you address?	bring up is the education inequality between schools in lower and higher income areas.
What approach would you take? Who would you work with? Why this particular issue?	The approach I would take is head on by addressing this issue too many of our local leaders. I would work with the political leaders in San Antonio such as the City Council, and the mayor. The reason I chose this particular issue is because it prevents children from having the same opportunity as one another.
