PUBLIC COMMENT

1. Public Comment is your opportunity to address your City of San Antonio elected officials directly about issues that are important to you and your community. To sign up to speak visit www.saspeakup.com. Click on meetings and events and select the meeting you'd like to participate in. Sign up to speak or submit a written comment. Members of the public are given up to three minutes to speak, and groups are given up to nine minutes.

Rohit Upadhya, Lexy Garcia, and Joe Thron, all members of Democratic Socialists, the We Power SA Campaign and public power advocate requested that the City invest the excess CPS Energy Revenues in energy efficiencies, conservation and proactive climate action rather than giving the money back to the biggest users of electricity and large corporations.

Chief Apostle Baby Boy Hester commented that he had been given a house and was no longer homeless. He showed some photos of his wife and son who were killed in a car accident and himself when he was dead and came back to life after the same car accident. He stated that he had been robbed but that Mayor Ron Nirenberg was going to take care of him because Michelle and Barack Obama had said so.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further public comment, the meeting was adjourned at 6:07 PM.
