General Terms.

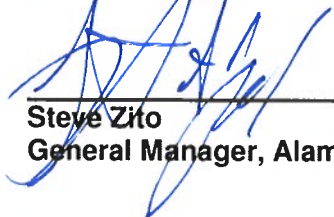

1. Each Party agrees to cooperate with the other in good faith. Scott Dawson Evangelistic Association must provide records and information necessary for compliance with Texas Government Code Chapter 480 to document attendance and the economic impact of the Event.
2. Should any portion or aspect of this Agreement be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction or the Office of the Governor to be invalid, then such invalidity shall not affect any other part or severable portion(s) of this Agreement, it being the intent of the Parties to obtain the maximum benefit possible from the remaining unaffected portion(s).
3. This Agreement is made subject to the laws of the State of Texas. Any legal action or proceeding brought or maintained, directly or indirectly, as a result of this Agreement shall be heard and determined in the City of San Antonio, Bexar County, Texas.
4. The Parties recognize that full obligations between the parties for the Event, including indemnity are addressed by the Event Agreement executed by those parties and the indemnity language in that document shall govern indemnification between those parties with respect to this Agreement. This Agreement is limited as specified and shall not constitute a modification, acceptance or waiver of any other provision or provisions of the Event Agreement. The parties agree that the covenants, agreements, terms, provisions and conditions set forth in the Event Agreement shall continue to remain in full force and effect.
5. Each signatory represents that he/she is duly authorized to execute this Agreement on behalf of and to bind the Party for which he/she signs.
