Describe your Professional History & Certification designations (Current and historical).	In March of 2019, I retired from the FAA as an Air Traffic Operations Manager at the San Antonio International Airport. I completed over 41 years of government service and aviation experience, the majority of which was acquired at the San Antonio ATCT. Through the years, I have functioned as a Tower and Radar controller, an OJT instructor, evaluator, and certifier, a Quality Assurance and Training Specialist, an Operations Supervisor, Facility and Hub SUPCOM Representative, an Air Traffic Evaluations Auditor, Operations Manager, and Acting Air Traffic Manager. As armament for an array of assignments, I have received formal training in an assortment of coaching, intervention, and team building methods, which included certification in High and Low "Ropes" from Adventure Experiences, Inc., a nationally recognized team training organization. Additionally, for the last ten years, I served as a mediator for the the Alamo Federal Executive Boards (AFEB) Shared Neutrals Consortium (SNC) program approximately quarterly, I provided mediation services to various agencies throughout the San Antonio and Austin area. While an Evaluation Specialist, I audited more than sixty different airports and air traffic facilities, across the country ensuring safety and compliance with FAA mandated regulations. I was also specifically selected to participate in a special assessment of four of the FAAs busiest and complex Control Towers, JFK, BOS, CVG and CLT to verify correct application of converging runway operations and then offer recommendations to increase efficiency and safety. Finally, during my last three FAA assignments, I worked closely with Senior Management at the San Antonio International Airport in planning and
